

Albert Loredo

May 23, 1939 - January 19, 2014

Albert was born in Santa Barbara and lived most of his life in the family home on San Andres Street. He was a simple and gentle man who enjoyed his solitary life. He loved riding his bike around town and to the beach. Later, when bike riding was no longer possible, he would walk everywhere. He didn't require much, a hamburger and a coke were his usual requests.

Albert was the youngest of 10 siblings, and is preceded by his brothers Manuel, Cyril and Martin Loredo, and his nephews Eric Ayala, "Ricky" Escoto, and Stanley Loredo. He is survived by his brothers Fred Loredo (Carmichael, CA), Michael Loredo (Santa Ynez, CA) and his sisters Cora Jimenez, Blanche Escoto (both of Santa Barbara, CA) and Dolores Ayala (Moorpark, CA) and 29 nieces and nephews.

Albert spent the last year of his life at Mission Terrace Convalescent Hospital where he made new friends. When asked if he was happy there, he always responded "they treat me like a King." We want to sincerely thank Lynn, Maria, Arturo and all the staff at Mission Terrace for taking such good care of Albert.

A Memorial Mass will be held on Tuesday, January 28th at 10:00 a.m. at San Roque Church, 325 Argonne Circle, Santa Barbara, CA. Directions to a reception will be given directly following the mass.

Previous Events

Memorial Mass

JAN 28. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (PT)

San Roque Catholic Church
325 Argonne Circle
Santa Barbara, CA 93105
(805) 687-5215