“ I had the pleasure of working with Chuck as principal of La Colina. He did a great job as a teacher and was well liked by students, parents and other staff members. He was thoughtful, calm, and was always willing to help in any way he could to make things better for students. I was very happy he was a member of the La Colina staff.

“ Dear Barbara, My condolences on Chuck's passing. As a former colleague at La Colina, I knew Chuck to be a Christian gentleman, a devoted husband, dedicated family man, a well-liked, well-respected and truly gifted teacher, one who was genuinely concerned about the students whom he taught. He will be missed! At this most difficult time for you, I pray that "the peace of Christ, which surpasses human understanding, descend upon you and remain with you forever. Respectfully, Joe Conway, English, La Colina
