

Charles G. Thompson

May 14, 1937 - May 21, 2013

Passed away Tuesday, May 21, 2013 after a bout with esophageal cancer. He was 76 years old. Chuck is survived by his wife Connie, whom he was happily married to for 55 years. Three sons: Charlie (Linda), Craig (Mark), and Chris (David). His brother, Don (Judy) and sister, Alice. His brother-in-law Ed (Lynn). Grandchildren: Carly, Maggie, and Charles, and great grand daughter Lilly.

After a career at the Nevada Nuclear Test Site, Chuck moved with his family to Carpinteria in 1967. There, he started a new career as an avocado farmer. Chucks family still lives on the ranch today and continues to enjoy the beautiful property.

In lieu of flowers, donation may be made in Chuck's name to the Carpinteria Education Foundation (Post Office Box 9, Carpinteria, California 93014) to support the Athletic, Music, and/or Drama department.

“ *Dear Connie and Family,
Just wanted you to know that I am thinking of you. Charles was such a sweet guy. He always had that twinkle in his eyes and a sweet smile. It was an honor to have known him. Sending you a hug.
Love,
Belinda*

“ Chuck was an incredible man - a straight shooter, quiet leader and generous community member. I so appreciated the opportunity to work with him on the Warrior Stadium project. Chuck was also the 'avocado guru' at the family ranch and watched over all of us!

Thanks Chuck!! debbie zeluff arnesen

“ Chuck has been my role model since soon after we met. He met every challenge head on with a positive, can do attitude. He and Connie were always welcoming. Jinny and I send our love, prayers and best wishes to you, Connie and the family.
