“ Chris has been there for me his whole life. Some may say he was forced to be my friend because we were relatives --but for him and I we could always connect at any time, any place and it was like we were never apart. I loved the fact that his love was unconditional .. to me to Kira to others and that is a quality that sticks with me and I can hear him chastise me for not being the dad or person I could be. We were able to share each others highs and lows and because of that we had a bond that can never be broken.He shared a child like quality that he got from his mother, one of innocence yet he wielded great influence! I am still not sure how he got me to drive Charlies truck without permission so I think he has some explaining to do in heaven! I will surely miss the soothing voice and reassurance he always provided me - but the memories I hold keep him close. No Glenda you cannot correct my english -- this is from me direct to Chris and he gets it warts and all. Isn't that the Pierce way? Chris if you are laughing at me I am gonna kick your ass...

“ There are too many stories and funny memories to choose just one. But, because of you and our awesome neighborhood, I am blessed to have had you as a friend during the best times of our life. When things were free, no cares in the world. Just being kids. That high pitched laugh of yours and all the mischief we got into will forever be in my heart. Until we meet again my friend. Thinking of you Glenda, Kelly, Kevin and Caroline. Kira, though I have never met you, your dad was an amazing talented man and the neighborhood we grew up in has endless stories and memories. I am so sorry for the loss of your dad. God bless you sweetheart. We were all devastated here when we got the news. I hope you find peace and carry all the wonderful things about your dad in your heart, where he will live forever.

“ To Glenda, Kevin, Kelly, Carolyn and Kira, All of our family will miss Chris with all our hearts, but we are also blessed with some happy memories of times we all shared with him and you. Kira, the last time I saw the both of you was a long time ago.. but I will never forget your Dad's smile and sense of humor. He brought laughter and smiles to all of us... My heart goes out to all of you... please know that even though I am on the East Coast, I will be with you all in spirit during his service. With all my love, your cousin, Linda
