

Clara Foxylady Oviedo

August 11, 1921 - July 18, 2017

Clara Oviedo,(Foxylady) went to be with the Lord on July 18th 2017 surrounded by her loved ones.

Clara was born on August 11, 1921 to Anthony and Rosalia Oviedo.

She was a woman of strength, determined to live a life to the fullest. She was a no nonsense woman and was not afraid to tell you the truth. Foxylady enjoyed dancing and dressing up and driving her Z28 and enjoyed being surrounded by her grandkids and family.

She worked as a riveter on planes during WWII in her younger years. She was also a waitress at the Rice Bowl, La Paloma, Rose Cafe and Thrifty Drugs luncheon counter.

In the 50's she met Pascual Gamboa and in 1961 had a son Gary Gamboa. Shortly after, they founded Pascual's Resturant in Santa Barbara, CA. They worked together to build it up, until illness took his life.

She is survived by her daughters Marylin Ramirez and Rosalie Delgadillo and son Gary Gamboa and 5 grandsons Paul, Thomas, John, Danny and Tony Ramirez and many grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Our Mom lived a good long and loving life and her love never failed.

Visitation will be held at Welch-Ryce-Haider, 15 E. Sola St. in Santa Barbara on Thursday, August 10, 2017 at 7:00 PM.
