

Clinton Bond Baron

June 8, 1953 - March 26, 2022

Clinton Bond Baron, a proud veteran of the U. S. Marines, passed away suddenly on March 26, 2022. Born Ronald Wayne Baron on June 8, 1953 to the late John Baron and Barbara Nan Clinton, he grew up primarily in Clinton, CT attending the Clinton public school system. He later legally changed his name to honor his late mother. Besides his parents, he was previously deceased by his brother Milan Dragovich and his wife of 8 years, Jane Hansen-Baron.

In November 1978, Clint enlisted in the U.S. Marines, serving for 5 years. He valued this service highly and attained the rank of Sergeant, serving as a drill instructor until his discharge in June 1983. Clint went on to pursue many adventures in life with passion and determination. His greatest dream was to work with animals and he successfully pursued and achieved this goal. He was licensed to train and own big cats, and many may remember him leash-walking his lion and tiger cubs on the California beaches. He worked for several animal handling companies and private owners of exotics until an injury forced him to give up his dream.

Clint is survived by his brothers John Robert Clinton of Clinton CT, Jeffrey (Sandra) Baron of Oceanside CA, and John Baron Jr of Carpenteria CA, sisters Joan (Joseph) Mastracchio of West Haven CT, and Jacquelyn Baron of Wallingford, CT, several nieces and nephews, a maternal aunt (Patricia Grant), his family of the heart, Frank Donroe of Milford, CT and Larissa Donroe Owens and her children of Miami, FL, cousins, and life-long friends (Travis Middleton and Ronald Marchant), along with many others he has touched throughout his life.

A military service honoring the life of Clint will be held at the Miramar National Cemetery on May 18, 2022 at 1:00 pm.
