

Cody Ryan Irwin

April 15, 2000 - June 1, 2017

Cody Ryan Irwin, beloved son, grandson, and devoted friend, died unexpectedly at home June 1st , 2017.

Cody is survived by his mother, Melisa Irwin and her partner, Jim Kirby of Carpinteria, his father, Ron Irwin and wife Angela of Santa Barbara, his grandmothers, Jacqueline Huth of Santa Barbara and Kathleen Boyle of Lake Isabella, and many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Cody was seventeen years old and completing his junior year at Santa Barbara High School. He enjoyed fixing computers, riding the trolley, playing video games, spending time with family, friends and his cat, Angel, one of the many cats he dearly loved throughout his short lifetime. Cody was sweet, good natured, a gifted conversationalist known for his generosity of spirit and willingness to help. He was a blessing to everyone who knew him and will be deeply missed.

Cody's family wishes to extend special thanks to Al Fudge of Santa Barbara and to the staff and administration of Santa Barbara High School, especially Vice Principal, Fred Razo. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to the Santa Barbara Humane Society or to a charity of your choice.

A Memorial Service will be held Saturday, June 24th at Welch-Ryce-Haider

Funeral Chapel, 450 Ward Drive in Santa Barbara beginning at 1:30 PM. To facilitate planning, kindly email mhuth66@aol.com with your interest in attending by June 20th.
