“ Dear Ferguson Family,
Your mom Connie, she liked being called that and my mom Virginia were good neighbors on Douglas Street. I was one of the oldest kids on the block and had baby sitting duties for Tom, Kathleen, Nick and Robert along with the Kujurara and Martin clan. My mom would share her homemade enchiladas along with a cold martini with “Connie” before Tom would get home. We on Douglas Street felt the emptiness when you moved to Santa Barbara. I’m much older now but still carry those great memories of Douglas Street.
