

Curtis E. Barnett

October 11, 1921 - December 20, 2012

Born October 11, 1921 in Midvale, Utah, passed away peacefully on December 20, 2012, at the age of 91.

Curt graduated from West Jordan High School in Utah in 1938. He moved to Santa Barbara with his wife and children in 1968. He was a self-employed custom cabinet maker all his life and owner of Curt's Custom Cabinets in Santa Barbara until he retired in 1999. He had a love for traveling and was a private pilot for 28 years. Curt enjoyed anything Clint Eastwood, margaritas, and black licorice. You could find him at Domingo's restaurant or roller blading along Santa Barbara's East Beach every Sunday until he was 86.

Curt touched many lives with his kindness, thoughtfulness, and love. Everyone he met became a friend and we will remember him for his fun quips and sayings. Those we hold most dear never truly leave us. They live on in the kindnesses they showed and the love they brought into our lives. These gifts of love, joy, and kindness will remain with us always. He was truly an inspiration to all who knew him.

His wife & best friend Jane Barnett preceded him in death. He is survived by his loving children - Kenneth Barnett, Norma Jean Barnett, Jack Barnett, Vicky Hemmah, Jeri Cain, Mike Hemmah, Mark Hemmah, Kathy Vigil, 13 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren.
