

Dawn Marie Huckle

April 21, 1942 - May 7, 2018

DAWN MARIE HUCKLE

Dawn Marie Huckle passed away peacefully at her home on May 7, 2018 after short illness. She was born Dawn Marie Spencer on April 21, 1942 in Elmira, New York to the late Clifford and Irene Spencer. She was preceded in death by her brother, Duane Robert Spencer. She is survived by her husband, John William Huckle, and her daughter, Susan Elizabeth Huckle. A burial service for Dawn was held May 16, 2018 at the Santa Barbara Cemetery.

As a believer in the Lord Jesus Christ she is now in the presence of Christ in heaven awaiting the resurrection of all believers according to I Corinthians chapter 15.

Dawn graduated from Morningside High School in Elmira in 1960 and obtained an Associate of Arts degree from El Camino College in Torrance, California, in 1962. Dawn worked for Santa Barbara County in both the Welfare and Planning Departments. She married her husband in 1979 and her daughter Susan was born in 1985. Dawn homeschooled her daughter during several elementary grades. Dawn always loved being a Mom! She was a devoted, loving & generous wife and mother. She will be greatly missed!

The family greatly appreciates the loving care provided by the caregivers and other professionals to Dawn during the last few days of her life from both Visiting Nurses Personal Care as well as Visiting Nurses Hospice Care.
