

Dolores L. Hartnett

March 28, 1932 - April 25, 2020

Born on Easter Monday in Santa Barbara, CA. Her maiden name was Saccanaghi and her baptismal surname was listed as Crawford. Dolores attended 12 years of Catholic School, graduating in 1951.

Dolores has been a member of Reina Del Mar, Parlor #126 – Native Daughters of the Golden West since she was 16 years old. She danced with “Las Fiesteras” for many years. Dolores was chosen to represent Santa Barbara in 1955 and rode on a float in the Fiesta Parade. She continued to be involved with the Fiesta for many years.

In 1954 she married Daniel J. Kammeyer and became a loving mother to six boys; David, Dwayne, Darryl, Derek, Dale & Drew. She moved to Genesee, Idaho for 7 years, moved back to Santa Barbara for five years then to Portland, Oregon for fifteen years before returning to Santa Barbara in 1980. Dolores married Alwyn N. Hartnett in 1981 and added two step-daughters; Diane and Dorene. Dolores and Al spent many years square dancing. She worked for Raytheon and retired in 1994. Dolores cared for her mother Anita Joyal and is a member of St. Marks Catholic Church in Goleta. Dolores’ love, kindness and compassion for all manner of creatures, especially cats, knew no bounds. She will be missed by all who knew her.

There will be no “in person” service at this time. A Mass of Intention will be held on line Sunday, May 3rd at 10 AM by St. Marks University Parish with Father John Love.

“ We are saddened to learn of the passing of our friend, Dolores, whose company we always enjoyed. She was a wonderful, supportive companion and soul mate to my long time friend, Al, who was fortunate to have her in his life. While she may no longer be among us physically, she is here spiritually, and the memories of her presence enriches all of us for having known her. Bob Burtness & Nollie Lei Dawson
