

Edward S. Carrillo

November 2, 1919 - February 12, 2013

Edward Styles Carrillo passed away peacefully on February 12, 2013. He was born on November 2, 1919 in Santa Barbara California to Edward M Carrillo and Estella Shaw

Carrillo. He attended Dolores Catholic Elementary School and Santa Barbara High School, graduating in 1938.

During World War II Edward joined the Coast Guard and was stationed in the Santa Cruz. After the end of the war, Edward, his wife Annette and their first born son, Edward Gary, returned to his beloved Santa Barbara to settle in and raise a family. In 1978, he purchased City Meat Market on Chapala and Figueroa in downtown Santa Barbara. Edward was a hard working happy man who enjoyed running City Market for many years.

In 1982, Edward retired and became a member of the Lyons, Cosmopolitan Club, Garden Club, and the "Eds Club". He was always happy to see his friends. Edward enjoyed being a court house docent for several years, taking visitors around the building he had seen constructed during the depression. He was very proud of Santa Barbara, especially the courthouse. He loved everything "Santa Barbara".

Edward is survived by his sons, Edward Gary (Anna) Mark Richard (Cynthia), his grandchildren, Mark (Jennifer), Joseph, Janina Ma (Peter), Lara, and his great grandchildren Juliana, Isabella, Nathaniel, Ryah and Zia.
