

Fay W. Tisdel

December 7, 1912 - April 20, 2013

100, of Carpinteria, CA passed away on April 20, 2013 at Mission Terrace Convalescent Center.

Fay was born December 7, 1912 in Bristow, OK to the late Joe H. Wilson and Peggy Baker. The family moved to Piru, CA in January 1924. She graduated from Knapp College of Nursing at Santa Barbara Cottage Hospital in 1934. She did post graduate nursing training at the University of California Medical Hospital in San Francisco. She worked as a Registered Nurse at Cottage Hospital.

Fay married Arthur Tisdel, Jr. in November 1939. Fay and Art moved to Carpinteria in 1941 where they raised two sons. She worked as a relief nurse and was a volunteer for various community organizations. She was a member of the Carpinteria Community Church.

Fay was preceded in death by her husband, Art, in 1988 and her brother, Jack. She is survived by Richard (Anita) Tisdel of Bel Air, MA; John (Norma) Tisdel of Phoenix, AZ; granddaughters Karen and Susan and great grandsons Matthew, Scoot and Benjamin.

Tribute Wall

TG

“ Dick, your mom and dad were such good friends with my folks over the years... so sorry to learn of her passing. She was quite special. Best regards, Tom Groves

Tom Groves - May 01, 2013 at 08:17 PM

DG

“ Dear Dick and John-----I'm so sorry about the loss of your mother. As you know, Fay and my mom were great friends. They took some wonderful trips together. Fay would organize everything and my mom loved it. Mom didn't make 100 but she was close. She too passed away at Mission Terrace. I think they did as much as was possible to make Mom comfortable at the end and I have no doubt for Fay as well
Regards, Dave Goodfield.

David Goodfield - April 30, 2013 at 10:02 AM