

Frances Nannette Hilton

January 29, 1927 - November 1, 2014

Frances Nannette Hilton, 87, a second generation true Santa Barbara local peacefully passed away on early Saturday morning November 1st. She was surrounded with love by all her local family along with her two sons and granddaughter right by her side. She had been able to spend her last years in her own home. Born on January 29, 1927 lived here in Santa Barbara graduating from Hope School and Santa Barbara High School.

She soon after met the love of her life Chandler Hilton a flight pilot in WW2, naming his pilot plane P51 "Fran" after his wife. They were married and had four sons together. Chandler passed in 1994.

Frances was a loving, caring, kind, strong and compassionate homemaker raising her 4 boys. She was active in volunteering on several school committee boards. She was very involved in all her boys sports, academics and hobbies. She loved her family and sons dearly.

Fran and her family were members of the San Roque Catholic Church where all four of her sons went to school, and the family attended church.

Fran especially enjoyed her vacation cabin in the eastern sierras naming it "God's Country". She loved picking wildflowers while all the boys were fishing. She quickly learned how to be the best alpine trout and hush puppy chef in the Eastern Sierras.

Frances is survived by her 2 sons, 5 grandsons, 2 granddaughters and 4 great grandchildren.
