“ Lammer Family:

Sorry to hear of your loss. I stopped by and saw Frank several months back and he could still talk up a storm. Boy was he proud of his granddaughters. He was like an uncle to me and our whole family loved him very much. "Frank" thanks for all your support and hard work over the years to make this planet a better place. You will be missed. Now go join your old friends in heaven and have a happy forever. John M.Craig

“ To the Lammer family,

I was part of boy scout troop 5 out of Guadalupe School. That was back in the late 50's and when I met Frank. I have fond memories of scout jamborees, riding in the back of the troop truck as we went on camping trips, and of course selling Christmas trees. He played an important part of my young life. I was fortunate to continue to see Frank into my teenage and adult years as I married Janie Craig, the oldest of daughter of Clayton Craig of the Craig Roofing Co. Frank was always cordial and he and I would swap stories about the "good ol' days." I am grateful that he was part of my life. I will miss him.

“ Your dad was part of my life and that of my family for many years! Frank's warmth of personality spread from his relationship with my dad and Craig Roof Co. Into our family. Your dad called my mom frequently to talk, check on her and share stories after my dad died back in 2005. Frank was a good and caring friend to many, he is an example to all who knew him. My sincere sympathy in the loss of your dad, papa, grandpa, uncle, He was a wonderful man! Hugs. Janie (Craig) Guillermo
