“ I want to share my condolences for Fred's family in their loss. I too am family and was so happy to get close with Fred for the past few years. Especially the past 5 years. He was such a kind, caring, upbeat person even when he didn't feel well. Truly a social person who had a word for all who came into ear shot. Often little funnies or morsels of wisdom meant to encourage and cheer. We spoke nearly every other day for the last few weeks just to make sure he knew someone was thinking of him and mom. He was always so sweet to my mom caring for her in all ways. May God bless him and hold him tight.

In Jesus name.
