

Mr. Jesse John Shaw

December 18, 1929 - November 24, 2012

Jesse John Shaw born December 18th, 1929 died on November 24th, 2012. He was preceded in death by his beloved wife Esperanza Shaw, his father Roy Long Shaw, his mother Florence Mary Vasquez and his brothers Patrick Shaw and Timothy Valencia. He is survived by his brothers and sisters, Richard Shaw, George Shaw, Mary Jane Shaw, Florence Shaw, Jimmy Valencia, Tommy Valencia, and Bernadine Valencia. He is also survived by his close cousin Albert Bustillos of Carpinteria and numerous nieces and nephews.

Jesse grew up in Santa Barbara and graduated from Santa Barbara High School. He also spent many years living in Carpinteria with the Bustillos family. He joined the United States Air Force in 1948 was honorably discharged in 1952. Soon after his discharge he married Esperanza and settled in Carpinteria. Jesse was a Master Mechanic, working for Colson's Garage and later owned Shaw's Arco Station. After closing the Arco Station he started his business Shaw's Garage. He was also a mobile mechanic for many years.

In addition to being a hard worker he had a zest for life and enjoyed his passion for fishing and hunting. In addition to fishing and hunting locally he made several memorable trips to Idaho, Alaska and Mexico's Sea of Cortez just to name a few. Many anglers and hunters accompanied him on these trips including his brothers, cousins, nephews and their sons.

We will miss you Jesse, you lived a great life and were a good friend to all that knew you.
