

Jessie P. Covarrubias

August 28, 1919 - May 13, 2013

Beloved wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother went home to our Holy Father peacefully, on May 13, 2013. She was 93 years old; born Jessica Agnes-Pardo Leon on August 28, 1919 in Glendale, Arizona to Faustino and Rosaria (Pardo) Leon. She was the second of six children, all predeceasing her in death.

Jessie moved to Santa Maria in 1935 when she was 16, then lived in Santa Barbara until she met and married her husband, Arthur Covarrubias Sr., a local musician in 1939. He later owned Radiotone Music on Victoria St. They were married for 52 years until his passing in 1991. Jessie loved to dance and enjoyed going to El Paseo, where her future husband (unknowingly at the time) played with his band. After her children were grown, she took a part time job as a yard duty teacher at Adams School and was known as a loving and patient grandmother figure. Everyone young and old called her nana.

Jessie is survived by seven children, William, Arthur Jr., Robert, Lynda, James, Frank, and Barbara, 21 grandchildren, 33 great grandchildren and 3 great-great grandchildren.

Jessie was blessed to have lived a long and fruitful life and we were blessed to have had her in our lives for so long. A special thank you to the staff at the CCC in Lompoc, CA for providing her loving care on her final days.

“ Mom you mean the world to me
It's hard to live without you
You were always by my side
Through thick and thin you helped me
Now when you're gone my life is hard to live
It's hard to breath
It's hard to see
And it's hard to think about anything but you.
Even though your love will shine in me
Forever, it's still hard not to look for your hand to hold.
Even though your not here with me in the Flesh, I still have you in my heart and in my memories.
I love you forever Mom

“ Thank you for the gift of love,
now you're sharing it up above.
You had many things to say.
All in a caring way.
You always saw good in everyone,
No matter what they've done.
You were always the one we could all lean on.
Even though it must have felt like a ton.
You were always the strength of the family.
Now we must let you rest calmly.
As we say goodbye,
as tears roll down our eyes.
I know your place in heaven has a good view.
Because you're telling God,
I need to keep an eye on a few.
Nana, you will always be in our hearts and mind forever!
