“ The best memories I have of John is when he brought Marc and Jeff to Iowa for the summer. They stayed with us. We had so much fun together. Those are memories I will remember all my life. I send my deepest sympathy to Marc and Jeff and to my dad. I pray that peace be with you.

“ While I had no relation to John, in our brief meetings he was always very kind to me treating me like I was his son. I have fond memories of our trip (with his own son Marc) to Las Vegas and how John and I walked around the casino's together while Marc was preoccupied with his own son Wes.

“ The Fallen Limb

*A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me.
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we're together again.

I remember when we lived on 10th St. with your parents, and Uncle Wayne, and Rosemary, and you and I would go to the old Forest Theatre. You loved going to the movies, and I enjoyed taking you. Rest in piece John, hope there is a theatre close by.
