

Mr. Juan Valeriano

June 25, 1936 - August 1, 2013

Juan Valeriano perdió su vida después de una larga batalla con el cáncer de pulmón a los 77 años el primero de agosto 2013 en el Hospital Cottage de Santa Barbara. Era un buen hombre que trabajó duro para ayudar a su familia cumplir todas las oportunidades disponible a ellos en este país. Fue muy bueno para hacer reír a todos y para dar buen consejo a todos los que quieran escuchar. Era muy conocido en la comunidad local, como alguien que siempre paraba a hablar con un vecino con una sonrisa. Nació el 25 de Junio de 1936 en Jalisco, Mexico. Pasó gran parte de su vida criando a su familia en Santa Barbara, California. Él se murió antes que su hijo, Juan Valeriano, Jr por cuatro años, una tragedia inesperada que cambió para siempre la vida de todos los miembros de su familia. Les sobreviven su esposa, Olivia, su hija, cuatro hijos y una familia muy grande que va a extrañarlo bien mucho. Queremos agradecer al Dr. Taylor, el Dr. Wright, su oficina y el personal médico y el personal del Hospital Cottage por todo lo que hicieron para ayudar a Juan y su familia durante este tiempo difícil. Servicios de Rosario se celebrará el Jueves, día 8 de Agosto 2013 a las 3:00 pm en el Welch-Ryce-Haider Funeral Chapel por su querida familia y amigos. La misa se celebrará el Viernes, 09 de agosto 2013 en Our Lady of Sorrows Iglesia Católica y servicios de entierro tendrá lugar ese mismo día en el cementerio Calvary.

Juan Valeriano lost his life after a long battle with lung cancer at age 77 on Thursday, August 1st, 2013 at Santa Barbara Cottage Hospital. He was a great man that worked hard to help provide for his family so that they could have every opportunity to meet their fullest potential in this country. He was great at making everyone laugh and would give great advice to all who would listen. He was well known in the local community, as someone that would give a friendly smile along his morning walks and would always find time to stop and chat with neighbors and friends. He was born on June 25, 1936 in Jalisco Mexico. He spent much of his life raising his family in Santa Barbara, California. He is predeceased by his son, Juan Valeriano, Jr. by four years; an unexpected tragedy that forever changed the lives of everyone in his family. He is survived by his spouse, Olivia, his daughter, four sons and a very large extended family that will miss him greatly. We want to thank Dr. Taylor, Dr. Wright, their office and medical staff, and the staff at Cottage Hospital for all that they did to help Juan and his family during this rough time. Rosary services will be held on Thursday, August 8th 2013 at 3pm at Welch-Ryce-Haider Funeral Chapel for his loving family and friends. The mass will be held on Friday, August 9th 2013 at Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church and burial services will be held later that day at Calvary Cemetery.

Cemetery Details

Calvary Cemetery

199 North Hope Ave
Santa Barbara, CA 93110
(805) 687-8811
http://www.archdiocese.la/directories/cemeteries/info.php?cemetery_id=3

Previous Events

Viewing

AUG 8. 9:00 AM (PT)

Welch-Ryce-Haider - Downtown
15 E. Sola St.
Santa Barbara, CA 93101
(805) 965-5145
info@wrhsb.com
<https://www.wrhsb.com>

Rosary

AUG 8. 3:00 PM (PT)

Welch-Ryce-Haider - Downtown
15 E. Sola St.
Santa Barbara, CA 93101
(805) 965-5145
info@wrhsb.com
<https://www.wrhsb.com>

Funeral Mass

AUG 9. 10:00 AM (PT)

Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church
21 E Sola Street
Santa Barbara, CA 93101