“ My cousin Judith was a very beautiful woman with a heart full of love and a spirit within her that enabled her to help others even in her own times of need. I will always remember her smile, her laughter, her hugs and her tears. Angelica, Marcellia, Richard, Cecilia & Olivia, your Mother and Grandmother loved you more than life itself, she was so proud of you, don't ever forget that. When you find yourselves missing her, look into your hearts, she will be there, she will be the gust of wind that blows through your hair when you are thinking of her, the rainbow in the sky after a storm, where you least expect it you will feel her, I promise. My prayer for you is that our Lord will hold you all close to him and comfort you now and always. All my Love, Your cousin Chopa
