Laszlo Rudolics

August 26, 1943-June 10th 2013

Laszlo died peacefully at home after a lengthy illness. He was born in Budapest, Hungary on August 26, 1943. He and his family escaped from the country in 1956 after the failed Hungarian Revolution to overthrow the USSR occupation of Hungary.

After spending various lengths of time in refugee camps located in several European countries Mr. Rudolics and his family were finally allowed to immigrate to the United States.

After spending several years in Tucson, Arizona Laszlo relocated to Santa Barbara, California in the mid 60'. Laszlo spent time in the military as a medic and after getting out of the army he held several positions as a machinist before going to work for Soil Moisture located in Goleta, California. He held the position of Production Manager for 30 years until his retirement.

His father Gregory, his brother Tibor and his son Jeff, preceded his in death.

His mother, Mary and his brothers Sandor & Zoltan, his children Jason, Daniel, Tina & Mia and six grandchildren, survive him.

Welch-Ryce-Haider located at 15 East Sola will be handling the funeral arrangements and respect may be paid between the hours of 11:00 AM and 12:00 PM Saturday on the 15th of June.

In lieu of flowers, his family asks for your prayers and good thoughts.
