“Mom talked of how she would once again see her beloved in heaven. She longed for the sight of him again. Now, as I ponder the lose of her in our lives, I envision her joy of walking the beaches of heaven, arm in arm with Daddy in the light of the Son. They loved the beaches, they loved each other and they believed in eternity. It will be a wondrous day when we all meet up again. I will miss her daily presence here as I anticipate the joy of the reunion.” The following is a little card mom gave me years ago and I have carried in my wallet everyday.

*"Angel of God, my guardian dear
To whom God's love commits me here.
Ever this day be at my side,
To light, to guard, to rule and guide."*

Thanks mom for pointing me in the right direction.

“ I am so thankful that I blessed with a wonderful great- grandmother in my life. I will always remember Meme for her heart full of spirit and love. She lived her life to the fullest and I only hope that someday I might follow in her footsteps. ~Chloe

“ Some people never meet their hero, in life. I was blessed to call mine Grandma. She will forever be perfect in my mind. Not a day will go by when I will not long to hear her loving voice, or feel her beautiful hand brush the hair from my eyes. By and by...we will see one another again. Until then, I will miss her with all of my heart.~Lisa

This sweet photo is how I remember Aunt Laverne.. Your mom and grandmother.. She was such a lady.. so sweet, gentle, and kind hearted. I remember when she visited the east coast, after we moved back east from living in Santa Barbara... and the first time she came out to the back yard and I saw her, she had this huge smile for me, and immediately recognized me and greeted me.. she made me feel so special... years had gone by and I wasn't sure she would remember. None of the children were with them.. just her and Uncle Larry...I remember sitting with her at a family bbq, and we talked for a bit... I told her how beautiful she was from the inside out and I hoped and prayed that one day we would meet up again on the west coast. One of the things that really touched my heart, was Aunt Laverne (your mom and grandmom, great grandmother) had kind words and a gentle spirit towards everyone there that day.. It made a great impression on my heart. She was and is a very special woman... Aunt Laverne you will be greatly missed, but we believe you are walking the streets of pure Peace hand in hand with the Uncle Larry, your husband, and walking, complete in body, mind and spirit now.. walking with our Lord.. and all those who have gone before us! My prayers and thoughts will continue to be with Pat, Larry, Paula, and Mike... and all the children and grandchildren. May the Lord grant you peace, hope and encouragement in this new journey without her.
