

Lee Constance Alfano

January 4, 1931 - December 12, 2022

Born in Los Angeles, CA on January 4, 1931, to Francisco and Maria Porrini, newly emigrated from Italy.

Survived by sister, Doris Schlerf; children, Nancy (Brad Banks), Mark (Kimberly) and Victoria (Mark Blethen; seven grandchildren, Tiana & Steven Hayes, Kristina Vercellono, Robert, Mary Margaret, and Matthew Blethen, Isabella Alfano and numerous nieces and nephews.

A graduate of UCSB in 1992, she later serves as librarian at Foothill School in Goleta where she received the California Congress of Parents Honorary Service Award. She was a longtime member of St. Raphael's Church where she served as a lector and Eucharistic Minister to the sick.

She was the "story lady" to many children and some of the happiest moments of her life were when she was reading to them.

A Memorial Service will be held at St. Raphael's Church on Thursday, December 22, 10:00 am, followed by interment at Calvary Cemetery.

Donations may be made to either St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105 or to the Goleta Library, Goleta, CA 93117.

“ The holidays will never be the same without Lee. I enjoyed her story telling, her baked goods and her wonderful sense of humor. She sure was a special lady who will be missed very much. ”

“ Gramma, it's hard to imagine life without you! I can't tell you how much we all love and adore you and how much we miss you already! Even though I wish it was longer, We are all so grateful for the time we had together! You have given us all so many great memories, and you will always hold a special place in each of our hearts!! I love you, and I can't wait to see you again!! ”
