“ There really are no words that I can give to really describe the loss I feel right now my Lolly... You have been my Best friend for over 16 years. You and I shared this special kind of love, I could look into your eyes and just know what you were thinking, we would sing like no one was listening and dance like no one was watching and love like we would never lose each other. Since the first day we met in November 2000 i felt complete and since that day I have never thought of my life with out you. Why would I? I would never ever want to. :(Lolly you have been my Angel in so so many ways for so long. You always believed in me when I didn't in myself, you always saw my beauty threw my broken she'll, and you always loved me unconditionally until I could learn to live myself... I will forever and A Day miss being able to hear your voice, miss being able to see your beautiful big smile I, or hear your funny laugh I, but I will Never forget the way you taught me to love, Deeply, unconditionally, and selflessly. I will never forget all our crazy Beautiful memories we shared. I will always and forever miss you LeeAna and I am so grateful I got to have you so close to my heart, and it is there on my heart I will keep yo always... Forever&Day
