

Lucyna Radlo

May 16, 1931 - August 20, 2011

RADLO, Lucyna ("Lucy") Bozenna (nee Kucharska)

Born in Miedzichod nad/Warta, Poland, on May 16, 1931, to Elizabeth and Feliks Kucharski, died in Serenity House on August 20, 2011, after a two-year struggle with renal cancer. In her memoir, Between Two Evils, she described the hardships of growing up in Nazi-occupied Warsaw and the tragic death of her father in Auschwitz. She later experienced happier times, including emigrating to the U.S. in 1951 along with her mother, followed by a happy marriage to Chester F. Radlo, the birth of two daughters, satisfying employment with the federal government, which included much foreign travel, and finally retirement in 1973 in Santa Barbara, where she and her husband acquired many new and dear friends. She is survived by her husband of 60 years, Chester F. Radlo, daughter Ellie Cassels and her husband Bob, daughter Carolyn Radlo, granddaughter Alanna Radlo-Dzur, stepson Nicholas Radlo, and relatives on both coasts and in Poland and Russia.

Visitation will take place on August 25 from 2 to 5 PM at Welch- Ryce- Haider at 15 East Sola Street, and will include a prayer service at 4 PM. Interment at Santa Barbara Cemetery will be private.
