“ Margaret was a very special member of our Armanini family, and we all spent a lot of wonderful times together with her and Nino over the years.. When John came into her life, he brought her so much joy and happiness. I asked my husband what his special memory of her was...he loved her yearly Christmas cards where she shared everything that she had done during the past year, including special visits from family and friends, as well all the exciting travels that she and John had done! We last visited 2 years ago and spent the night with her in her gorgeous home in Placerville. Our son, JC had been visiting with us up in Oregon, and a visit to Margaret was a must do on our way down to the Sacramento airport. As always, she was the perfect hostess! She was making us risotto, which I was in charge of! Just like times with Meyna and her...I cooked, and they shared wine, and encouraged me on! But, Margaret did help with the risotto that surprisingly came out of a box! We had the best laugh! During dinner, we all revisited our fun memories, John sharing times when he was growing up and visiting their house on many occasions. His memories also recalled their wine making days! A true Italian tradition... My son also loved her since he was quite little. He loved her zest for life and stories. After we went to bed, he and Margaret stayed up until 1am just laughing, talking, and sharing stories and jokes. I also think they shared a little wine...

Margaret was a truly amazing woman who loved life, people, dogs and cats, but especially her family. We think of her often, and she will be dearly missed. We use to joke with her that she was "a wild child"! She always laughed about that!

So, here is a toast to a great lady! Thank you, Margaret, for sharing your life with us! And, now, up with our Heavenly Father, you are no doubt giving him a "run for his money"!

With much love, John, Patty, and JC Armanini

“ I was one of Margaret's caregivers but as time went on, we became friends She was a free spirit and loved to laugh at most things in life. It was so easy to be with Margaret and I got to love being with her. Rest in peace sweet lady.
