

Margot L. Felix

September 13, 1913 - July 4, 2014

September 13, 1913 - July 4, 2014

Died peacefully at home with family at her side at 100 years young. She was born to the late Carmen Lainez in San Miguel, El Salvador. The first of five children. After living in Panama during construction of the Panama Canal Margot immigrated to the United States in the late 1940's. During the 1950's she lived in San Francisco, CA and married her husband, Leandro Felix. In 1968 she moved to Goleta with her husband who was transferred to Port Hueneme to work on ships for the U.S. Navy. He later worked for Delco Electronics and then Mari-Pro until retirement. She was always a devoted wife and superb homemaker. Margot loved gardening and would spend hours in her yard, caring for her splendid fruit trees and beautiful roses. She was proud to become an American citizen. She had a special love for animals, giving them constant attention and love. One of her favorite places to visit was Hawaii.

She had a wonderful sense of humor and a great love for her family. Margot took great care of her mother for many years until her death in 1972. Her nieces and nephews were like her children, she was generous and loving and opened her home to them. She always shared her love for God. Thanking Jesus every day and always upon arriving home safely from an outing. We are all grateful for Aunt "Tia" Margot and glad to have had her with us for so many

Margot was preceded in death by siblings, Virginia Granillo, Carmen Hale and Rodolfo Lainez. She is survived by her sister, Lillian Villacorta, nieces and nephews, Linda Jordan of Santa Barbara and Alex Castagna of Ojai, Mario Lainez, Yvonne Albrecht, Raul Granillo, Jaime Granillo and Janiba Perez.

We miss you and will see you again. Until then our memories bring a smile to our faces and warmth to our hearts. The family wishes to thank her neighbors, especially, Brenda, for her years of daily visits with Margot, and her caregivers for their gentle loving care.

Rosary on Thursday, July 17, 4pm at Welch-Ryce-Haider Goleta. Services on Friday, July, 18, 10am at St. Raphael's Church.
