

Mary Castellano

August 29, 1916 - December 17, 2011

Mary was born in New York City to Raffael and Raffaella Masucci. She was the youngest of 8 siblings- 3 boys and 5 girls. When she was one year old, the family moved to Queens, NY, where she was raised. She graduated from an all-girls public high school, Julia Richmond in NYC. She was married on October 12, 1941 to Fred Castellano. She had two sons- Frederick and Paul. Her husband went off to war. While at home she worked in the defense plant for four years waiting his return. He was wounded and returned home to a long rehabilitation before he went back to work. They moved in 1951 to the suburbs, after the birth of her second son, where she lived for many years as a stay-at-home mom. After her husband retired in 1977, she moved to Santa Barbara CA, where three of her sisters lived with their families. She was the last surviving sibling with many nieces, nephews, grandnieces and grandnephews surviving her. Her grandson Daryl and his wife Nicole, along with their five children, live in Southern California with her oldest son Paul living in Santa Barbara. Mary will always be remembered as a loving, giving, and magnificent wife, mother and grandmother. She will be greatly missed by everyone.

Chapel services will be held at Welch-Ryce on Sola St. from 9am - 9pm on Wednesday, December 28, 2011. Memorial services will be held the following day, Thursday, December 29, 2011, at 11am at Welch-Ryce, followed by burial services at Mount Calvary Cemetery on Hope Ave. in Santa Barbara.
