

Mary Virginia Conley

February 8, 1950 - August 31, 2012

Mary Virginia Conley

Of Goleta, CA, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Conley of Kensington, MD, passed away suddenly on August 31, 2012. Born on February 8, 1950 in Bethesda, MD. Mary is survived by her parents; her daughter, Lisa Romeo Hanback (Doug); her brothers, James and Stephen Conley; her stepchildren, Jennifer Street, Tom Romeo, and John Romeo; daughters-in-law, Tommie and Tracye; her grandchildren, Vanessa, Steven, Chance, Jordyn, Hope, and JT; and many nieces, nephews, and cousins. Her husband, Richard Romeo, preceded her death in 2009. Mary was an avid photographer who came to Santa Barbara in 1974 to study at the Brooks Institute of Photography. She retired in 2008 from Scholari's Market where she was a bookkeeper for over 20 years. She enjoyed spending time with her family in Goleta, visiting her family on the East Coast, walking her dogs on the beach, spending time with her friends, and pursuing her passion for photography. A devoted daughter, mother, sister, and friend, Mary will always be remembered for her warmth, kindness and compassion, generosity, wisdom, her wonderful laugh and quirky sense of humor. A funeral Mass will be offered on Friday, September 7 at 10 a.m. at St. Mark's University Parish, 6550 Picasso Road, Goleta, CA.
