Michael P. Jogoleff

March 24, 1946 to January 7, 2017

Santa Barbara native Michael "Jug" Jogoleff, 69, passed away January 7, 2017 after a courageous battle with cancer.

Michael was born at the Old Cottage Hospital. His mother Celeste, and Aunt Dorothy moved to his lifelong home in Santa Barbara in 1950. He attended Dolores Catholic elementary and Bishop Diego High school. After high school, Michael's thirst for knowledge did not end. Michael also attended the University of New Mexico; University of Portland; Thunderbird School of Global Management; Santa Barbara City College; where he received various degrees; ranging from Bachelors to Masters.

Michael's passion in life was Amateur HAM radio. WA6MBZ "Jug" had his fingerprint on decades of engineering and technical support within the Santa Barbara Amateur Radio Club.

He served for a time on the Board of Directors of this great organization. Michael also mentored the youth of Santa Barbara in Ham Radio techniques and history.

Michael was also very involved in his church; Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Community . He helped serve meals to the needy and homeless. He also helped with many special events within the Parish.

Michael was a member many organizations in Santa Barbara. Among them were: The Audubon Society; the University Club; The local Astronomy Club; Lifetime Member of the NRA, and the Bungalow Association. Michael organized an annual neighborhood block party on Panchita Place 14 years ago; and it continues today.

Michael will be greatly missed by his lifelong neighbor, and Buddy, Joe. From all the adventures in the hills, looking for a little bit better signal, to the many trips to the hospital; Joe was always there.

Mrs. J. and Mike's family will be forever grateful to him.

Michael was preceded in death by: his mother: Celeste Reding Jogoleff; Aunt: Dorothy Reding; Grandparents; Aunts; Uncles and a Cousin.

He is survived by Cousins residing in Iowa, Washington and Idaho.

Services were held at Our Lady of Sorrows on January 12, 2017. Michael was laid to rest at Calvary Catholic Cemetery, Santa Barbara, California.
