“ When seeing Miguel's photo in the paper it got to me, we had not or seen each other in a long time, But around 3 weeks before passing HE WAS POPPING INTO MY HEAD, and call him to catch up,. We met when he was in the 9th and I was in 10th grade at the REC DEPT. we also both lived on bath 3 blocks apart. and all we did was play basketball all day everyday at SBHS and anywhere we could Get a RUN IN. MIGUEL WAS A TRUE ORIGINAL. THAT IS FACT. I will always have a special place in my heart with Miguel and all the SBHS BOYS for all the great times we spent together. THE SBHS TEAMS WERE GOOD VERY GOOD . and so were the players during this time and we went at it hard, ALL THE BEST TO THE MERAZ FAMILY FOR YOUR LOSS. I no this is a late but if you need help with his fund call me 805-295-6195 GOD BLESS. ICE-MAN will live in my thoughts forever , Till we meet again ICE Dean Haley
