

Mrs. Minnie F. Terres

February 10, 1913 - June 23, 2012

Minnie (Erminia) Terres

Born 2-10-13 Passed away 6-23-12

Minnie was dearly loved by her family and friends. A gentle and loving wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 55 years Joseph R. Terres who passed away in Dec. 1993.

Minnie will be deeply missed by her daughters and their families: Arleen Nicholson and husband "Bob", her grandchildren Matthew and his wife "Bea" and daughter Metta.

Twin grandsons preceded her in death: Samuel Nicholson died 6-28-12

Benjamin Nicholson died 3-5-11

Also, surviving is daughter Cecilia Ann Schmidt and her husband Harlan and grandson Mark Funkhouser and his wife Dawn.

Minnie was born into a family which originated in Spain. She had 10 brothers and sisters, is survived by brothers Salvador Franco and John Franco and pre-deceased by sisters Mercedes, Jay, Frances, Dolly and Angie and brothers Amor and Tony and survived by numerous nieces and nephews.

Minnie was ever loving and cheerful and her love was unconditional. Besides enjoying time with her family and dear friends she would crochet wonderful tablecloths and doilies, treasures for us all! She became a great reader of large print books claiming she learned so much from them.

Minnie added immeasurably to the lives of those fortunate enough to know her!

Minnie is gone from our sight but never from our memories.

Gone from our touch but never from our hearts.
