

Nicolasa Maya Falcon

April 11, 1928 - July 15, 2012

FALCON, Nicolasa Maya

She was born to Carlos and Adelina Saenz Maya and has 6 brothers and 5 sisters. She married her high school sweetheart Alfred and together they had four children Alfred (Jr.) of Santa Barbara, Adelina (Nini) of Irving, Texas, Anita (Nita) of Bedford, Texas, and Angela (Tootsie) of Lompoc.

She has seven grandchildren, Leeanna M. Diaz (Urbano), Dionne L. Gillem (David), Alex Echevarria, Andrew Falcon, Regina Avila (Donny), Paul Morello, Nikkie Morello, sixteen great grandchildren and one great great grand child.

She went by many names, but to her family she was Mama. She was a daughter, sister, aunt, mother, grandmother and great great grandmother to Alani Diaz who she never got to meet, but we will tell Alani of her as time goes by.

Mama was interested in her genealogy so she searched with a vengeance her family history. In her search, she found out we are from the Mescalero tribe (Apache) in New Mexico on her mother's side. She even had the opportunity to make a trip to New Mexico because she found living relatives there. She was very excited about what she found out about her family history. Finding family in the states was easier than finding her fathers family in Mexico. She was saddened that more family information regarding her father could not be found but the search still continues.

Mama, you had a hard life and were always strong. You survived all the ups and downs and the good and the bad. Through it all you enjoyed every hour of every minute of every second with everyone you knew and had the chance to meet along the way. We are who we are today because of you. We enjoyed you all the same and we will cherish all of the memories you left us with and we will never forget you. We love you more than words can ever say. You will be greatly missed by all those fortunate to have known you.

Just awesome, I too took a picture with her hands. That is my favorite. Thank you for adding this and all the pictures for us to see for the memories she got to have.

“ Now that your gone,
The memories remain of what used to be,
Your beautiful Smile,
The sound of your laugh,
Your heart of Gold,
You wore on your sleeve,
Those big brown eyes,
Filled with love,
But most of all,
the love you gave,
You always had faith,
You never gave up,
You always found a way,
to make us see,
How great GOD is indeed,
I'll never forget the times we shared,
But most of all just sitting and talking with you,
You always had a way with words,
A way to make me see,
But most of all you made me believe,
You helped me see why,
you had to leave,
Your spirit was strong,
your body was weak,
He saw you struggle,
He felt your pain,
He held out his hand,
You grasped it tight,
No more pain,
No more struggles,
Just the comforts of Heaven,
With each day that passes,
I'll miss you even more.

“ Mama you always had something to say to me about what I did good and bad. Sometimes your advice made me laugh. I did hear you , just pretended. Because of that guess what I am really hard of hearing must been when you smacked me in the side of the head. Like you said "I shouldn't of been running you would of got me were you wanted" It's funny now. Love you Mama
