“ I worked with Noellan for many years, and I have very fond memories of her. She was a wonderful face of the library to many patrons, always friendly, helpful, and caring. I feel blessed to have been a colleague and to have shared many warm moments and conversations. Noellan was truly the epitome of grace. My sympathies to her family and other friends.

“ Ric and I will always remember Noellan in so many ways. She loved to cook, drink fine wine, listen to French music, dance and she had the greenest of thumbs of anyone I know. Her flowers and plants were amazing. Ric and I shared many wonderful times with Terry and Noellan.

She was one of the most loving people we knew.

We considered her a close friend and she will be greatly missed.

Noellan, you are now an angel in the heaven of God. You are out of pain and and suffering.

Terry you are a strong man. You will miss Noellan so much, because we know how much you loved her. You put one foot in front of the other and always remember you have family, God and friends who love you.

Keep all the beautiful memories in your heart.

“ I'm sorry Noellan's gone. It seemed that things might have happened differently, but there's no assurances with cancer. It's something our family well knows, and there's no preparing for it. Noellan liked people in a straightforward way that I'll always remember. It's what we all might aspire to, but for Noellan, it was just part of her nature. I'll always remember her as a loving person who gave her attention to others. I think there must be hundreds of kids out there who visited the library where she worked who'll remember her for her goodness. Noellan made a difference in many people's lives. I'm sorry she's gone.
