

Richard Sereda

September 21, 1932 - November 14, 2023

September 21, 1932, Kharkov, Ukraine - November 14, 2023, Santa Barbara, USA. Richard Sereda passed away after prolonged illness at the age of 91. Richard, born into an immigrant family, embarked on a remarkable journey, immersing himself in the realms of architecture and engineering during his studies in Argentina. His career included impactful roles at an institute of radio research and contributions to the world of opera by being a member of Teatro Colón in Buenos Aires. Upon relocating to America, he completed his history studies at University of California.

Beyond his professional pursuits, Richard's commitment to community was evident. Engaging in scouting, working at Ampex Data Systems Corporation, and serving as an elder at the Holy Resurrection Russian Orthodox Church showcased his diverse contributions. Notably, he dedicated 12 years to volunteering at the charity organization "Food from the Heart".

Richard's life was a tapestry of experiences—he traveled extensively, cherished music, history, and art, and was fluent in six languages. A craftsman and avid collector of antiques, he was always ready to extend a helping hand. His life stands as an exemplary model, leaving an indelible impact on those who had the privilege of knowing him. Richard will be profoundly missed by family and friends. Eternal memory.
