September 15, 1937 - December 18, 2011

Chicago, Illinois Santa Barbara, Ca.

To sum up the life of a man in mere words can never fully express the essence of who he was. It does however, give a glimpse into the heart and spirit of a life well lived. On December 18, 2011 Robert Guillen ended his journey on earth lovingly surrounded by his family and friends. A husband, a father, a son, a brother, a godfather (Niño), a uncle, a friend, a coach, a ref and dear dear grand father, Robert? better known as Bob, Dad and Papa had a heart of gold and lived in a spirit of love. His embrace was reassuring, his kindness loud and his zeal for life contagious. A happy man living to make a happy family.

He is survived by his wife, Barbara of over 50 years, his three amazing daughters, Karen Jacinto, Lori Tuller and Kelly Sorenson and their husbands, Alvino Jacinto, Kevin Tuller and Mark Sorenson. Bob is also leaving behind the apples of his eyes, his grandchildren. Keri and Alexa Ellenberger, Veronika, Leiesa, Sonja and Zoe Jacinto, Chad and Sophia Tuller, Tyler, Nico, Lucas and Camille Sorenson. His brother, Mario Guillen, sister in law, Patricia and brother Tony Guillen also survive him.
