“ Bob was an amazing guy! I've known him since I was a teenager when we girls, including his wife Mary Ann, went to Newport Beach in the Summer. We met met him when he was a cool, young folk singer.

He was smart as heck, tremendously talented, had a great ironic sense of humor. It was sheer joy to have joined the Our Lady Of Sorrows Choir in late 2004 and spend so much time with Bob and Mary Ann and the wonderful members of his choir.

Bob brought me back to the joy of singing. He played a big role in revitalizing my spirituality. He will be dearly missed.

Bob, you are surely up there with Our Lord. Watch over us!
