“ Robie was someone you don't forget - he was one of the best tile contractors that worked for me over the past 40 years. His sense of humor and spirit always made the jobs fun. He had a cruel hook in his golf swing - one time on the 17th hole at muni - the legend goes that Robie hit a huge hard shot but shanked it so bad it went into Earl Warren through the window of a camper and you could hear the ball bouncing around inside the camper. It was so funny that the foursome gave Robie a gimme hole in one camper on that hole. Joe Campanelli
