

Mrs. Rosemary Jeanine Devers

May 9, 1955 - June 4, 2013

Devers, Rosemary Jeanine

Rosemary Devers, formerly a resident of Clinton Township, Michigan, passed away on 4 June 2013 in Santa Barbara, California at the age of 58. Rosemary was born in Detroit, Michigan on 9 May 1955; daughter of Joseph and Rose Antonucci. She is survived by her loving husband of 34 years and best friend Jeff Devers, son Jeffrey Devers, daughter-in-law Amy Devers and special granddaughter Addison Lynn Devers. She is also survived by her mother Rose Antonucci; brothers Frank, Joseph G. and Mark Antonucci; sisters Patricia Morgan, Janice Wagge and Lisa Albrecht; brother-in-law Richard Devers and wife Anita and brother-in-law Michael Devers and wife Yoko.

Rosemary spent a number of years living in Cairo, Egypt with her husband and enjoyed international travel. While living in Cairo, Rosemary volunteered at The Community Services Association helping others adjust to life in Cairo. This was typical of Rosemary because no matter where she was in the world, she would always find time to help someone else. She had a positive impact on all that knew her and will always be remembered for her unselfish kindness and willingness to help others. In addition to the daily sunshine that Rosemary brought everyone, she also had a green thumb for growing flowers.

Rosemary worked at Re/Max East in Clinton Township, Michigan for over fifteen years on the office support staff and retired as office manager. While there, she deeply touched the lives of all, and developed many special friendships.

The family wishes to extend their sincere gratitude to everyone who kept Rosemary in their thoughts and prayers, for the many cards she received and for the loving care provided by her dear friend Chrissy Presser.

Viewing arrangements will be held 12:00pm – 6:30pm on Monday 10 June at Welch-Ryce-Haider Funeral Chapel (15 E. Sola Street). Funeral service will be held at 10:00am on Tuesday 11 June at Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church in Santa Barbara.

It was 3 years ago today that you got your call from God to join him in Heaven. It is so hard not having you hear. I miss you everyday and everything we had together, but am so very blessed because of all that you instilled in me. Our daily phone calls are one of the things I miss most whenever we weren't near each other. No matter if we talked for a few seconds or 10 minutes, just the joy of talking and hearing you was the best. Continue to look over us all every day and guide us to success, safety, love and happiness.

You are truly missed down here with us and always will be, but know that you are doing amazing things in Heaven.

I always have, and always will, love you forever.

“ A Poem For The Living

*WHEN I AM DEAD,
CRY FOR ME A LITTLE.
THINK OF ME SOMETIMES,
BUT NOT TOO MUCH.
IT IS NOT GOOD FOR YOU, OR YOUR WIFE, OR YOUR CHILDREN
TO ALLOW YOUR THOUGHTS TO DWELL TOO LONG ON THE DEAD.
THINK OF ME NOW AND AGAIN AS I WAS IN LIFE,
AT SOME MOMENT WHICH IS PLEASANT TO RECALL,
BUT NOT FOR TOO LONG.
LEAVE ME IN PEACE,
AS I LEAVE YOU TOO, IN PEACE.
WHILE YOU LIVE,
LET YOUR THOUGHTS BE WITH THE LIVING.*

“ Hi Mom,
Well today is Merrick's three month birthday. You would be so amazed at your grandson, as well as Addi. We show Addi pictures of you and she definitely knows who Grandma Devers is. Merrick is a spitting image of me. You would be so proud of seeing the family I have created :)

I looked through every single picture on my computer the other day, and was full of smiles and tears with lots of our family pictures. You're smile is so contagious, and a one-in-a-generation smile.

I know you know, but not a day goes by where I don't talk to you, smile up at the sky for you, kiss your necklace, and just think of you.

Please continue to look over the family as I know God does with you. Keep getting those rooms ready, as one day we will be together again.

Always loving you and missing you and in my prayers. I love you more than words can say.

Your baby boy,

“ *Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the autumn's rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the uplifting rush.
Of quiet birds in circled flight,
I am the soft star that shines at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there, I did not die.
For as long as man remembers me,
I am not dead, but dwell with thee.*

Over the years, I've sent you cards for every occasion. To know that you saved each one of them was very special and heartfelt to know. I've read each card front to back last night, and must say there was a recurring theme in my writings to you. All said that you were appreciated more than you know, loved the most, GREATEST MOM IN THE WORLD, and that I would try to repay you for all you've done for me (true to your unselfishness).

You are my all Mom, and I know you are with us every second of the day.

Inspired by the beauty that each day tends to give, we set out on a journey, to find how best to live.

We walk by faith and not by sight as step-by-step we climb. Upon this stairway, upward, towards Heaven's paradise.

The steps are sometimes difficult, but each day made complete, by measured moments that we share, and a promised place of peace.

Finally our steps ascend beyond the veil of life. Destiny unfolds in glory, In Heaven's paradise.

Rest in Peace sweetheart

“ We are so sorry to hear about Rose and really appreciate that you let us know. Thinking back to our days on Highview, Rose certainly had a way of making everything seem much brighter. Rose truly was a special person. Over the past several years she would call every year or so and it always seemed as if we were still neighbors. I guess, with Rose, we still were. The miles never made a difference. We are blessed to have had her in our lives.

“ We have never, nor will we ever again have the pleasure of knowing such a beautiful spirit. Rose had such an infectious smile, attitude, and personality that it was impossible to be down in her presence. Truly a ight in a world that needs that so, so much.

We regret that we only had the absolute pleasure of knowing her for such a brief time. But then, when that person is Rose, can you ever be around her enough? This world has lost an angel.

Rest in peace Rose, you have had such a profound effect on all whom you have blessed with your presence.

“ I would like to share a writing that Rose made in a book entitled, A Mother's Legacy. The book was given to her by her son Jeffrey in 2009. Rose was first diagnosed with cancer in June 2010. This book asks questions which helps you tell your life story in your own words. This particular question asked, How would you like to be remembered? Why is this important? Here is Rose's entry dated, 20 January 2011.

" I would like to be remembered as a person who loved life and a strong person. Always happy, sure I would have my bad times but i don't like to let things bring me down. I am always trying to think positive and a person who believes in God, and have faith that he will take care of all of us. This is very important because I don't want anyone to think different of me. And, I forgot, one thing always "smile" :) it makes you feel better inside & out"

Rose was simply the most friendly person I met in Cairo. She made you feel loved and cared about no matter what was going on in the outside world. She was accepting of who you were whatever that was, non-judgmental; beautiful. She is already missed. My condolences to the family.

“ Dear Jeff & family,

Rose had a smile that lifted a room, & a laugh that was so infectious. Rose will be truly missed, I know I am a better person for our paths crossing here in Egypt, she was truly a beautiful person.

Until you meet with her again, I pray the pain & emptiness that you feel will be replaced with all the wonderful memories you enjoyed with Rose & you can all smile as she did when you think of her. I pray with the help of the One that surpasses all human understanding, He will grant you this prayer sooner rather than later.

God Bless you Rose.

“ I will miss Rose so very much. To read all the comments from people about her smile, laughter, warmth and caring is so testimonial to the person she was even as a kid. I remember going to her house after school and hanging in the kitchen. Her mom calling out “Rosemary...where are you going now?” as we would take off out the door to wherever at the time. She was a ball of energy, full of laughter and wore her beautiful smile back then. Rose’s family moved and, graduating from another high school, we lost touch.

Years later we reconnected in Cairo, Egypt. - 4 wheeling in the desert, shopping for her dress she wore to Jeffery’s wedding, (a day of insane laughter between Rose, myself and Luba Perault), eating dinner at the Maadi House, parties on the roof top, baseball games, cruise on the Nile, touring the sites..just so many memories of good times. What a small world it truly is, and how fortunate I was to find her again.

I will miss our breakfasts at Big Boy, lunches at Olga’s, shopping at Partridge Creek, and the phone calls from MI, CA, and Cairo to catch up on recent events, talks about school days and who married who...who is where now...the OMG’s – the No Way’s! the laughs for hours on end. I will also miss the conversations where we would lean on each other for support in rough times...and yes, she reached out and comforted me when I needed her, even as she was going through her treatments. THAT is the kind of person she was. ONE of a kind!

I will meet her again one day in heaven on the top of a cloud where we will shout out “Milk is on sale for a dollar forty nine at Carfours!” She knows exactly what I I will She knows exactly what I mean! ;-)

Love you Rose,

You touched so many lives with that infectious smile as so many have written.

What come's to mind most when I think of you is.

" HOW ARE YOU"!

That was always the first words our of your mouth when ever I saw you, or when we talked on the phone.

We had so many great times, always remember our golf lessons the three amigos . You me and Lori. How we laughed at at our mishaps and cheered when we did well. The roof top at the clinic listing to you sing with the band. Our meetings on home leave at Big Boys to catch up.

You will always be a shining star to me, you always asked how Mom and my brother were. Even though you were going through so much yourself.

You fought a tough battle my friend. Now I have peace knowing you are no longer in pain and are in heaven, an angle their as you were on earth. Will miss you dearly.

Jeff, Jeffery, and Amy hope all these wonderful tributes to your wife, and mom help and bring you peace knowing how much we all cared for Rosie.

“ Rose. To my best friend and confidant. I cherish the hours we spent together during those long Egyptian afternoons, solving most of the world's problems and putting aside the others for another day.

You were an inspiration for all that were blessed to meet you. Your smile radiated sunshine and you had kind and loving words for all. They say that kind words are easy to say but that their echoes last forever and that is truly your legacy.

I miss you so much and can take comfort only in knowing that you were an angel sent among us to earth to spread love and joy, which you did so effortlessly, and that God has simply called you back to Heaven to give you another assignment. You touched the hearts and lives of so many people from so many cultures and walks of life in your short time, and I know that you will continue to do the same.

We miss you so much, but feel blessed that we were given the opportunity to know and love you.

“ Aunt Rose,

You were an inspiration for everyone you have ever meet or came across. You always had a open heart and a loving smile that warmed up the entire room the moment you walked in. You never had a bad thing to say about anyone that didn't deserve it ;), You always put your family first. You always took care of me whenever you were around, or even if my father wasn't there you were always on my side and supported me whenever i needed you. I love you and miss you so much, and you will be dearly missed by everyone you came across. Please watch over us and make us smile when we have bad days.

I love you aunt rose

“ To the entire Devers family we offer our sympathy. I remember Mrs. Devers always cheering on the freshman baseball team at Chippewa from the side lines. As we grew older she always made you feel welcome in her home with big smiles and offerings. Jeff, your mom's spirit and personality are still very much alive and strong in you. And you will no doubt pass on those great qualities to your daughter. And as she grows she will do things that will remind you of your mom, you will smile ear to ear , and laugh, and realize your mom is still very much with you. Our prayers and hearts are with you.

Love,

“ Rose, you will be sooo missed. I loved and learned from you, how important a smile is, not only for yourself, but especially for others. You had the biggest, most beautiful smile, I'll never forget it. You walked in any room or event, with your smile, and no matter what else was going on, your smile and presence brought joy to all those around you.

Jeff, our prayers are with you and your son..it will be difficult to move on without Rose, but she loved life, and she loved her family so much. Carry that love in your heart and know she's looking down on you all with a big smile. Keep a picture of her beautiful smile with you, and when you have those days that you feel like you can't go on..pull that picture out and let her smile, her beauty give you the strength you need.

We feel so blessed that God allowed us the opportunity to know Rose, love her and have fun with her. We are better people because of her. God will give you the grace and strength to live life with her joy in your heart.

We are truly truly so sorry for your loss, we wish there was something we could do...but I know during these times, prayer is so important. Please know we are praying for you and will continue to pray for and your family.

With love,

“ My thoughts and love to you Rose. Your love is everywhere and has always been there for your family and friends. You loved and cherished my lifelong best friend and knowing what I know of him, he cherished every moment in return. You were an immediate friend from the first day we met more than 30 yrs ago and I too will miss your voice on the phone, that smile you gave to everone, and the love you returned unconditionally. I am so glad we had a chance to see each other last summer and i will always think of how much joy you are bringing to your new friends. I could only hope to have even a small portion your bravery in your times of transition to heaven. You truly were a gift for all.....my heart and prayers go to you. I love you my friend

“ Mrs Devers,

You were the mother of my best friend. You always greeted me with that warm smile and kind laughter when I used to come over to hang out with him. There's not to many people like you anymore. You always put other people first! I can still hear your voice when I used to pick him up "CJ come on in! You want a pop or something?" I know you will always be looking over your husband and son because you loved them very much.

To Mr. Dever's, you had a wonderful wife who will always be missed!

To Jeff, your mom was and is still one of the greatest.

Mrs Devers you will be missed very much!

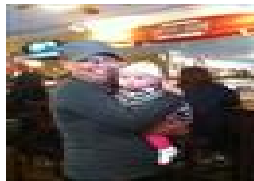

Thoughts and prayers go out to the Devers family!!

“ Dear Jeff,

I cannot begin to express how very sorry I am for you and your family at this sad time. Although my time with Rosé in Cairo was brief, it was so obvious what a generously kind and gracious woman she was. I immediately felt welcomed and comfortable with her - she was so warm and hospitable. She clearly blessed all who knew her and I am grateful to have met her and spent time with her. Know that we are praying that God is blessing you with his comfort and peace as you grieve the loss of your precious wife.

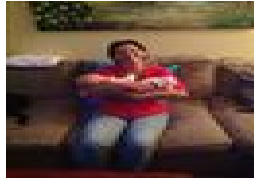

May God's peace be yours,

“ Everyone will speak of Rose's warmth, her contagious smile, love of family and friends, her happy attitude towards life and Tom and I will echo the same. Whether it was wine in the gazebo, "Dancing with the Stars" at the Maadi House, music on the rooftop at the Clinic, or conversation at the Ace, Rose was the one you wanted to sit with and enjoy the laughs. She was such a selfless person and always asked you how your family was. Jeff and Jeffrey, our thoughts and prayers continue to be with you, and just know that she loved and adored you. You and your family made her happiest in life. Rose, we will always remember you and your beautiful smile. With much love, Tom and Cathy Grimmer

“ Mom,
Life will never be the same without you here. The number of great and heartfelt memories can not be listed as there are too many, and I am so blessed we could share each and every one of them together. As I have always told you, you are the rarest of all moms, in that they don't make moms like you anymore. Your infectious smile always lit up the room you were in. Your unselfish nature was second-to-none. With you now up in Heaven, you will be overlooking the family every step of the way. Save that spot for me Mom, as I will be up there next to you one day.

You are irreplaceable, and words can never describe how much you will be missed. I am just so lucky and proud to have you as my Mom. You are truly the greatest.

I love you with all of my heart always and forever.

Rose is remembered for being such a generous, selfless person, who did truly love life and her circle of family and friends. She's an inspiration to all of us, gave her time to help without reservation and expects nothing in return.

An extremely kind person who will be missed greatly but will be remembered with much love and affection.

I love you Rose... you will always be in my heart.
