“ I only knew him as someone I waited on when he came into my place of work with family or friends. But I can tell you he stood out for always being so charming and kind and genuine. For being someone you would think "I bet he would be such a fun and good friend." He liked his coffee with heavy cream, not half and half and it was always my pleasure to oblige. When he came in with his mom I could tell he was so happy to be out with her! I can only imagine the mark he made on the lives of those who knew him better than I. My condolences to you all.

“ I met Tim when I was living and working in Los Angeles. We immediately fell head over heels for one another. He was my best friend, my brother, my soulmate. The world is a different place without him in it. He was the most authentic, amazingly talented, giving, hilarious, kind hearted person I've ever had the privilege of calling friend. My prayers and heart is with his family. Tim you will forever be in my heart and soul. I love you brother. I pray you are at peace. Jennifer Schaefer

“ Dear Beloved Family,

We've known Timmy since he was a bright, happy child growing up across the street from us on West Valerio Street.

Always kind, gentle, and considerate, he kept those qualities his whole life.

He was a man of many interests and talents, some of which we are just learning. We will miss Timmy's bright smile and never forget him.

*"We have loved him during life, let us not abandon him, until we have conducted him by our prayers into the house of the Lord."
