“ Al Hollis was my friend. My friend. I am devistated to hear of his passing. His time here was too short. His job was well done. I will miss him greatly. Rest in peace Mr. Hollis.

“ I just heard about your loss from Bob Ruppel. I am deeply sorry for your loss. I did not know your son, but I worked with Wendell @ greyhound many years ago.

“ Mary Ann and family,
I was so sorry to hear of Allen's death. I can only imagine how difficult this time is for you. Allen was our paperboy for years and I/we also knew him from Hollister School - which my own children attended. Later, I would see him at Long's Drug on Calle Real and we would talk about those "growing up" years and our mutual neighborhood. What a sweet, kind, friendly person he was.

My prayers are with all of you at this time of loss.

“ Dearest Hollis family, so sorry for your loss. Allen was a fine young man, always so friendly and polite, he was our paper carrier 31 years ago when we moved into the neighborhood. He will be greatly missed. Our love and prayers,
