“ Robin and Carol, We are remembering Billy, years ago, doing the paddle out with his Father's ashes and the group of friends on the boat tossing leis into the sea. Such a beautiful, moving ceremony. Our connection with your family is from Father Bob's trip with us to Samoa many years ago. Billy's obituary was beautifully written. Our very deepest sympathy to you,

“ Billy, i only knew you for a little bit but in that little bit i gained a friend. You were not the best horseshoe player or partner but heck....i would have choose you as a partner any day and over anybody. Say hi to everybody up there for me, one day we will meet again my friend. My mom would always say that we didnt lose a friend, or family member, father, brother, uncle etc. Heaven gained 1 more angel. So untill next time Billy.

“ Billy was a very sweet soul. Always offered to help, always meant well and had not one mean bone in his body. I know we, like many others, miss him beyond what words can adequately express. None of us were ready to lose him and remain in disbelief that he is gone. Too young, too soon and never to be forgotten.

And Carolyn, Mike D and Erik L share these sentiments too!

“ I have fond memories of our trip to Baja in the blue wagon. Surfboards, refrigerator converted to an ice chest (if I remember correctly) and lots of fun, beautiful scenery, wild run ins with locals and all that Billy brought to the trip.
